You should think about these with subtle wisdom, my son.

Then you will see that God is within you.

You cannot fathom the mystery of the bliss of such worship.

The spark of graceful wisdom is already established in the helpless baby at birth.

**|

**|

Therefore, the grace of gnaanam is in everybody.

**||

But man does not know how to make use of this

**|

and becomes “manu-neesan,” the degraded one.

**||

His character and conduct display a false appearance.

**|

He calls himself a manu-eesan and assumes both these roles.

**||

If a virtuous guru is available to him,

He shows himself as manu-eesan
and creeps into his wisdom,

He divides the six facets of wisdom,
dispels the false substance
and lights up the bliss of the Omnipresent God.

He is destructible
|
but shows himself as manu-eesan.

It is for this reason that I say

I
you need a true guru with wisdom.

II

You should trace him and stick to him.

I
The guru does not discriminate
I
between the high and the humble.

II

The Primal One
I
who mingles with the high and the low
I
stays with the wise
I
as wisdom, as compassion, as grace, as a limb,
I
as a resplendent wisdom that rules the world,

as the ripe fruit of wisdom,
|
as the honey of joy,
as the three shining effulgence's,
as the triple resplendence
of
the parts of the body,
as the lamp of clarity
and as the heart
|
that rules the wide world with lustre.

He is the Primal One, my little brother.

He Is NOW
